
Subject: Classroom Attendance and Conduct

1. Purpose

2. Policy

Regular class attendance is expected of all students. Grades are based on the performance of assigned work, including classroom work. The University does not observe a formal "cut" system. The professor has the authority to decide the classroom conduct of his or her students if these actions do not infringe on the students' rights. Eating and drinking in class will be at the professor's discretion where policy and safety allow. Smoking shall only be as permitted by University policy.

"Faculty are expected to provide students with a course syllabus on the first day of class each semester, including course objectives, topical outlines, and the expected performance for which grades will be assigned as well as the instructor's attendance policy IF ANY (Faculty Handbook, Section 4.6.1).

Additionally, "class meetings are an integral part of most courses and the central component on many. Therefore, both faculty and students are expected to meet at all regularly scheduled times, except for cancellations announced on a university-wide basis by appropriate authority. When faculty cannot meet a class, it is their responsibility to follow departmental procedures so that appropriate measures can be provided for the missed class. When students cannot attend a class, it is their responsibility to make arrangements for any work missed as soon as possible" (Faculty Handbook, Section 4.6.2).
