1.0 Purpose

This policy lists the requirements for continued enrollment based on academic eligibility.

2.0 Policy

2.1 Continued Enrollment

Continued enrollment in the university is a privilege that is granted as long as the student is making satisfactory progress toward a degree.

All students must meet the following minimum criteria to be certified as making satisfactory progress toward a degree.

1. Upon having attempted 72 semester credits (including transfer, advanced placement, advanced standing, and credit by examination) students must:
 - a. Be enrolled in a degree-granting program, and
 - b. Be certified at the close of the academic year by their department as making satisfactory progress toward a degree based upon pre-established minimum criteria, and
 - c. Have an in-major GPA of 2.00 or above and maintain an in-major GPA of 2.00 or above until graduation.

Students who have not met condition a above will be declared by their academic dean to be ineligible to register or return at the end of any academic semester for a specified period of time to be determined by the academic dean. The student may not re-enroll until they transfer to another degree granting major. Students who have not met conditions b or c above may be declared by their academic dean to be ineligible to register or return at the end of any academic semester for a specified period of time to be determined by the academic dean. These students will have until the end of the next semester of enrollment (Spring or Fall) to achieve compliance. Students not meeting conditions b and c after the end of this probationary semester will need to transfer into a different major. Under extenuating circumstances, exceptions to these policies may be made by the student's academic dean.

2.1.1 Other Policies

Any college or department may develop, adopt, publish, and adhere to policies that are in addition to this policy after review by the Office of the University Registrar. College and departmental progress to degree policies need to be consistent with other university policies and graduation requirements. College and departmental policies therefore need to adhere to the following guidelines:

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University

1. Progress to degree statements need to align with graduation requirements and cannot request overall GPA and in-major GPA higher than that required for graduation.
2. Progress to degree statements cannot require grades for specified courses to be higher than the grades required for graduation.
3. Progress to degree statements restricting the number of attempts at any given course to less than three are not permitted.
4. Statements that provide guidance to students and allow them to gauge their progress in the major should be formulated as recommendations. For example: "It is recommended that students successfully complete xx credit of in-major courses upon attempting yy credits." Similarly, statements/checkpoints that mention specific courses should also be formulated as recommendations. Students should not be removed from their major if they fail to achieve a recommended checkpoint.

2.2 Associate and Undergraduate Academic Eligibility

Students who maintain the required minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.00 and who do not have two consecutive main semesters with term GPAs below 2.00 (consecutive main semesters with unsatisfactory academic performance) are considered to be in good academic standing with the university and are eligible for continued enrollment at Virginia Tech absent any violations of policies resulting in suspensions by committee action or Student Conduct.

An academic warning shall be imposed when a student earns less than a 2.0 term GPA, but with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher. No notation will appear of the academic transcript. Students on academic warning will be required to sign an academic contract acknowledging that their performance is not meeting university standards and stating what actions they are committed to taking to improve performance. Students who fail to successfully complete an academic action plan may be prohibited from future enrollment by the appropriate academic dean.

Academic probation shall be imposed when cumulative GPA is less than 2.00.

A student on probation:

- May take no more than 15 credits per major (Spring or Fall) semester;
- May not take more than 12 credits during the summer;
- May not take more than 3 credits during the winter;
- May be required (at the discretion of individual colleges) to
 1. consult with an advisor before beginning a probationary semester, and
 2. to sign an academic contract acknowledging that their performance is not meeting university standards and stating what actions they are committed to taking to improve performance.

Academic probation will be lifted when cumulative GPA is at least 2.00.

2.3 Academic Suspensions

2.3.1 Suspension Based on Cumulative GPA

First suspension will be imposed when a student has two consecutive semesters (Fall and Spring) with a cumulative GPA below 2.00. A student must earn a minimum of 2.50 term GPA for each (Fall and Spring) semester or raise their cumulative GPA to a 2.00 to avoid being placed on academic suspension.

Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University

First Suspension: A student who is placed on first academic suspension at the end of a Fall or Spring semester will be suspended from continued enrollment through the end of the subsequent Spring or Fall semester. A student must earn a minimum 2.00 term GPA the first semester back and raise their cumulative GPA to at least 2.00 by the end of the second semester back or earn a minimum 2.50 term GPA for every subsequent semester following the suspension until cumulative GPA is 2.00 or greater. Failure to meet these GPA criteria upon return from first suspension will result in second suspension.

Second Suspension: A student who is placed on second academic suspension at the end of a Fall or Spring semester will be suspended from continued enrollment for two consecutive academic semesters (Spring, Fall). A student must earn a minimum 2.00 term GPA the first semester back and raise their cumulative GPA to at least 2.00 by the end of the second semester back or earn a minimum 2.50 term GPA for every subsequent semester following the suspension until cumulative GPA is 2.00 or greater. Failure to meet these GPA criteria upon return from second suspension will result in final suspension.

Final Suspension: A student will be permanently dismissed for failure to meet returning performance requirements after a second academic suspension.

2.3.2 Suspension Based on Consecutive Fall or Spring Semesters with Unsatisfactory Academic Performances

Suspension will also be imposed when a student has two consecutive semesters (Fall and Spring) with a term GPA below 2.00. A student who is placed on suspension because of consecutive terms with unsatisfactory academic performance at the end of a Fall or Spring semester will be suspended from continued enrollment through the end of the subsequent Spring or Fall semester. A student must earn a minimum 2.00 term GPA the first semester back. Failure to meet this GPA criterion upon return will result in suspension through the end of the subsequent Fall or Spring semester.

2.3.3 Readmission

A student whose cumulative GPA is below 2.0 must obtain his dean's approval before returning to school.

2.4 Appeals

Students who are suspended have the right to appeal their suspension to the University Appeals Committee. The University Appeals Committee is comprised of the associate deans of undergraduate studies of the academic colleges and one faculty member appointed by the Vice Provost for Undergraduate Academic Affairs. Students must complete an academic appeal petition and submit all required documentation to the associate dean of their college by the published college deadline. Failure to meet the published deadline may result in the loss of opportunity to appeal.

If the University Appeals Committee denies an appeal, the student may request further consideration of the academic appeal by the provost's representative. The decision of the provost's representative is final and there is no further recourse.

3.0 Procedures

4.0 Definitions

Satisfactory Academic Progress – This policy is intended to define the minimum institutional requirements that undergraduate and associate students must meet related to their progress towards degree. These requirements should not be confused with any additional academic progress requirements from outside groups such as Title IV aid (Financial Aid), NCAA eligibility, Department of Veterans Affairs, Department of Homeland Security, etc.

Academic Warning: Students earning less than a 2.00 term GPA, but with a cumulative grade point average of 2.00 or higher, will be placed on academic warning without notation on the academic transcript. Students on academic warning will be required to consult with the appropriate undergraduate assistant or associate dean of their college and to sign an academic contract. Failure to complete an action plan (academic contract) may result in prohibition from future enrollment(s).
